A Country House,

And about 200 acres of Land, within 3 miles of Alexandria, will be sold by the subscriber. The house was formerly occupied by himself, and is about one third of a mile from his present dwelling. The situation is high and remarkably healthy. The house has 4 rooms, and a kitchen and pantry, on the lower floor, and four chambers with fire places in the 2d story. It was well built under the superintendance of Mr. Lovering, a respectable English architect, and would make a comfortable summer retreat for a genteel family, or might be made a valuable Tavern by opening a road through the land. About one half of the land is in wood; the residue is capable of being made handsome grounds. There is a good well and pump in the yard; and there are several good springs on the land.

The terms of payment will be one fifth in four months; the residue in four equal annual payments with interest; one half secured by notes well endorsed, and the whole by a deed of trust on the land.

Possession may be had immediately.

From the Connecticut Courant.

THE BRIEF REMARKER.

Nothing is more common than the discontent of those who have not even a shadow of cause for discontent. They are neither sick, nor pinched with poverty, nor called to sustain distressing hardships. They enjoy both food and appetite. They have raiment to put on, and friends to converse with; and if not rich, have fully enough for the moderate supply of all their wants: yet are these enjoyments, these bounties of indulgent heaven, poisoned as it were by the discontent of their minds, so they are wretched amid health and competence.

What are the illusions that thus obstruct the sources of enjoyment, and in this favoured country, cheat so many men and women out of the happiness which Providence had put them in posession of?—They are such as usually spring from one or other of three following causes—Perverseness of temper—False theories of worldly happiness—the influence of opinion.

With respect to enjoying ourselves well or ill in life, a great deal more depends upon temper than upon circumstances. Not but that our enjoyments are always considerably affected by our worldly circumstances, sometimes in a very great degree; but if they are such as that we are able to support ourselves with all the real necessaries and essential comforts of life, it is not our circumstances, but our tempers that are in fault, if if we are not too happy to complain and too grateful to repine. The root of our uneasinses is altogether in our own minds, and without a thorough change there, no change of place or of outward circumstances could quiet us. What though all our present ideal wants were satisfied? Other ideal wants would presently spring up, and we should still be weaving for ourself the web of misery. A temper that inclines to be satisfied with its present lot, is worth more than thousands a year; whereas utter restlessness of temper is one of the greatest misfortunes. A full moiety of human troubles would vanish, and the rest be lightened, if their were a thorough cure of this one scrofulous disease of the heart.

Our false theories of worldly happiness constitute another huge class of troubles of our own making: and the effects of these false theories are the most deplorable, in as much as the disappointments inevitably resulting from them sour the dispositions, and thereby enhance the numbers of the wretched victims of temper. Corporeal enjoyments are few and simple: neither wealth, nor any of the arts of refinement, can add considerably to their number, or any thing at all to their relish. The pleasure of sense are limitted by narrow boundaries which never can be passed without instantly turning pleasure into pain: & how much soever we may refine upon the pleasures of sense, our refinements can increase them but very little. The most refined epicure, for example, has scarcely any more enjoyment of the pleasures of the table, than one who confines himself to the plainest viands. Wherefore nothing is more plain and easy of comprehension than the true notion of mere wordly happiness:—the whole sum of it results from Health, Competence, the friendly Society of neighbors and acquaintance, and the pure joys of Domestic Life. He that has these, though he have neither wealth or rank, enjoys about all the world can bestow. But these real and unsophisticated enjoyments, which are bestowed in fully as large measures upon the peasant as upon the prince, are too vulgar for the fastidious taste of the visionary speculatists: they must find a something that is quite above and beyond the blessings common to Adam's children, else they are determined not to enjoy themselves at all, not they. Thus they lose the good that lies fairly in their reach, by laying out their endeavours to grasp an abstract something, that is conceivable indeed, but not attainable, an ignis Fatuus, which the eye plainly sees, but which evades the touch and baffles all pursuit.

The last brood of artificial troubles which I proposed to notice, are those that are generated by the influence of opinion: I mean not one's own opinion, but the opinion of others. We are such strange and unaccountable creatures that we are more solicitous to appear happy than really to be so; and hence we willingly abridge our real enjoyments for the sake of seeming to possess enjoyments superior to those that are altogether common to mankind. Now the general opinion of society (a very erroneous indeed) makes the pomp of show a prerequisite for the being deemed happy, or at least for obtaining the credit of refined enjoyment; and this general opinion, how much soever we may depise it in our judgments, has an astonishing influence upon our conduct and our feelings; an influence that precipitates hundreds and tens of hundreds from a condition of competence to that of poverty.

That apt Remarker Dr. Franklin, observes, "the eyes of other people are the eyes that ruin us. If all but myself were blind, I should want neither fine clothes, fine horses nor fine furniture." It is even so; and it is this supreme regard to the eyes of others that leads multitudes of men and women into extravagant and ruinous expenses. Without adequate funds they build them fine houses and purchase them fine furniture and array themselves with costly apparel, that others may gaze upon them as persons possessed of taste and of refined enjoyments: and by these means they are presently stripped of the very necessaries of life.

Boston, Oct. 9.

LATEST FROM FRANCE.

The brig Governor Carver, Capt. Dotten, arrived here yesterday from Havre. We are again indebted to the politeness of a friend for Paris Journals to the 25th August.

In France things continued tranquil and settled. The public Stocks were stationary, but low. Executions for political offences had ceased. The birth day of Louis 18th (feast of St. Louis) was celebrated the 25th Aug. with great splendor and festivity.

In all the Nations of Europe reductions of the armed force were daily taking place.

Translations from the papers.

Paris, Aug. 24.

The trials of the traitors included in the decree of July 1815, and who are in foreign countries, have ended; and they have all been condemned for contumacy, to death. The Gens. Lallemand, brothers, were the last condemned.

Gen. Kosciusko has left Switzerland for Italy, in company with Lord Stewart.

A terrible quarrel took place the 11th inst. at Mentz, between two parties of Austrians and Prussians in garrison there. They fired upon each other, and several were killed and wounded, before officers could suppress the riot.

Brussels, Aug. 21.

Numbers of French exiles remain near this city. M. Pomereuil and Garreau have been arrested by order of our King, and the former ordered out of the kingdom. M. Arnault is under serveillance. M. Merlin, of Douay, remains sick. Gen. Huzlin and M. Barrere are here with other names. Gen. Lamarque has been ordered away, and Gen. Millinet is sought after. Gen. Lobau and M. Courtin continue here, and Gen. Vandamme at Ghent.

Paris, Aug. 25.

Yesterday, being the feast of St. Louis, His majesty received all the authorities, staff officers, &c. in the hall of the throne. We remarked, with pleasure, that His Majesty appeared in perfect health. In the afternoon His Majesty walked into the heart of the city, to witness the festivity enjoyed by all classes of his subjects.

Prince Talleyrand has made a visit to Paris to be present at the fete.

Extracts of Letters.

Paris, Aug. 25.

All accounts agree that in the memory of no man living, has there been a season so cold—they observe there has been no Summer. Such however, is the ertility of our soil, the crops will be tolerably good. Rice, etc. are not recommended to be sent. None of the bankruptcies which have taken place in England and America, have reached here."

Mexico.

The editors of the Mercantile Advertiser were yesterday favoured with a translation of the following interesting intelligence from Mexico. The fact here stated of the revolutionists having taken possession of Matagorda, is confirmed by the report of captain Fowler, from New Orleans.

"His excellency Don Jose Manuel de Herrera, Minister Plenipotentiary from the Republican Government of Mexico, to the United States, has communicated, under date of 24th August last, from the port of Matagorda, to a respectable person at Philadelphia, the following information

The Republican army of the province of Vera Cruz, under the command of Gen. Vittoria laid siege, on the 18th July last to the cities of Cordova and Orizabo, which were then on the eve of surrendering. The Commander in Chief of the Republican troops of the province of Puebla Teran was endeavoring by forced marches to occupy the ports of Guazacualcos, which was without means of defence. Gen. Bastamante had been victorious over the Royalists as often as he met them, and was pursuing them with all haste. Gen. Arredond, Commander in Chief of the interiour provinces, for the Royalists, had fallen back with the few forces under his orders, on Monterrey the capital of the new kingdom of Leon, in consequence of the Republicans having occupied the port of Matagorda, where they had fortified themselves, and where they were daily augmenting their strength. Subsequent to the possession of that port has been the evacuation of St. Antonia de Baxar, capital of the province of Texas, which was garrisoned by the regiment of Estremadura, one of the most famous corps of the Royal party.

"The Republican Army of the North is, for the present under the command of Col. Piere, during the absence of Gen. Toledo who is now in the U. S. on business of moment & whose presence with the army is impatiently desired.

"The Representatives who are to compose the next Congress are named by the people, and by the present time will have opened their session. It afforded great pleasure to see the joy and enthusiasm which pervaded the Mexicans on the day of election. A person who was witness to this interesting scene says, that in the province of Valadolid, there were very few likenesses of Washington and Franklin which the people carried in their processions, accompanied with musick & songs allegorical of the occasion.

"Between Washington and Franklin some carried the resemblance of the Curate Hidalgo, the first who had the spirit and courage to raise the standard of liberty, who was afterwards made prisoner and shot by the cruel Spaniards at the age of seventy.

"Never has the Mexican cause presented so favourable an aspect. The Congress, formed of men of influence, will remove all those difficulties, which now (the present moment, have paralized the rapid progress which was looked for in a revolution created by the unanimous and express will of the people.

"The immense resources which this beautiful country contains, will hereafter be administered by a government which meriting the public confidence will give a new impuls and will cause itself to be felt by the physical and moral qualities of the republic.

"The next campaign will be an object of lively interest to all men who are really lovers of the sacred rights of humanity. It will complete the emancipation of this fine country from the oppressive hand of despotism. The Inhabitants of Mexico will hereafter be enable to enjoy and participate equally the precious gifts with which nature has favoured them."

Extract of a letter from Buenos Ayres, dated 21st July 1816.

"There is plenty of employment here and wages are very high; living tolerably reasonable; but every thing else extravagant. The people here have obtained their Independence, but the state is divided into three parties, all struggling for the government—they have been under arms twice since my arrival here—the rage is brewing and I expect they will eventually fight among themselves. The soil of this country is excellent, and very productive. There is little wood here; and distillers, bakers, &c burn Sheep for the purpose of making large fires. A Creole will kill a bullock and dress it for two dollars, and a sheep for 25 cents. A Horse can be purchased for one dollar. There is plenty of milk here, but no butter, and, the reason I cannot divine unless in consequence of ignorance of the mode."

"There are 75 churches in this city, all Catholic, and so superstitious are the ignorant populace, that every day or two they parade the streets, with the Holy Ghost, as they say, in a carriage, and every person must kneel as they pass, or instant death is the consequence, from the mob. The coach is an antique looking article, and is drawn by two white mules, which the priests tell the people have lived since Christ was upon earth—inside the vehicle is an old priest praying and howling as he goes."

ALEXANDRIA:

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 15.

The meeting of the Freeholders of Fairfax County, for choosing delegates to meet at Centerville, on Tuesday next, for the purpose of nominating a successor to the hon. J. Lewis, is postponed till Monday next.

REVIVAL OF THE SLAVE TRADE.

Not content with having, during the late war, smuggled enormous quantities of British dry goods, the Spanish authorities at Amelia Island, it is said have it in contemplation to draw great numbers of Africans, and no doubt many Spanish West Indian negroes among them, from Havannah, for the purpose of clandestinely introducing them into this state and South Carolina. This is a bold step as the consequence of detection is confiscation and Death ; but there are men who will encounter any danger for the sake of profit. It is the duty of our government, a duty it owes to humanity and the laws of our country, to counteract the enterprise of those avaricious tigers. The means are simple and sure. Two well equiped brigs would be competent, one to cruise off the bar capture and bring to justice such Americans as illegally shelter themselves under the prostituted flag of Spain—the other anchored off Piont Petre, and keeping every night, look out boats from Rose's Bluff to Cumberland Point. This would render all attempts at smuggling futile, except the rogues should cross over their live merchandize from the Southern part of the Island to the Florida shore, and pass the St, Mary's a considerable way up.

The prevention of the latter step the duty and interest of our country people ought to make a matter of emulation . as besides it being a violation of our laws, the introduction of Spanish negroes would be found to be as pernicious as scatte ing the brigands of St. Domingo over our country. Our application is let us rest in peace, and this depends entirely upon the speedy remedy which government may apply to the existing evil.

Savannah Republican.

In the state of Georgia, the Cotton crops are short, and will not probably average more than one half the usual quantity to the acre. Of corn, however, very good crops are anticipated ; at all events, a sufficiency for home consumption.—Milledgeville Journal, 25th ult.

CORN.—It has been discovered that Corn can be obtained from St. Domingo, if it should become extremely scarce in the United States. Some importations have already been made at this place and even in Connecticut. At first it could be obtained at 50 cents a bushel, but on the demand increasing, the price advanced considerably. The grain is smaller than ours, yellow, and of an excellent quality, and it is said three crops of it can be raised in one year in that island.

Law Intelligence.—At the Superior Court sitting in Danbury, Con. last week, came on the case of the State vs. Elipha-let Bennet. Information charging the prisoner with a wilful and felonious burning his own house in the night season.—The fact of the wilful burning being proved, the court charged the Jury, that it is no crime for a man willfully to burn his own house. Whereupon the jury immediately returned the verdict of not guilty.

Con. Courant.

A singular circumstance took place in this city, on Thursday night. A man and his wife were quarrelling, and the husband beating his helpmate. She flew from him—but left behind her, her. but not his son, of about ten years of age. The little boy, irritated at the treatment of his mother. grasped a gun, which he found in the room, and discharged it at the man, who was wounded, but not mortally ——Richmond Compiler.

Another attempt was made on Thursday night to burn a house in town. This act must have been instigated by wanton malice. The house was just finished, and stood apart from other buildings.

Portsmouth Oracle.

Extensive Fires in the Interior.

For several days past, says the Portsmouth Oracle of Saturday, the atmosphere in this vicinity has been filled with such thick smoke as sometimes to render the sun so dim as to be viewed without pain to the eye, and nearly to eclipse the moon. This smoke proceeded from the fires now burning in the back part of the state. At Gilmanton on Tuesday last the woods being on fire, an explosion took place which tore up the trees and timber to the height of 60 feet, and a column of fire was raised as high as the eye could reach, to the extent of about 5 rods square this happened on the land of Mr. John Thurston, about four miles east of the Academy, between 1 and 2 o'clock, A M attended with a noise similar to an earthquake, and lasted a minute or two. The fires extended to Guilford, Alton, Barnstead, New Durham, Farmington and Rochester.——We also hear that in the county of Grafton in the towns of Plymouth, Rumney, Wentworth and Warren, very extensive fires raged : as also in the town of Kennebeck river.

Extract of a letter from Montreal, dated 27th ult.

" It is reported that a proclimation will be issued immediately, prohibiting the import of every description of provisions and bread stuffs from the U. States, which we believe is a fact. "

The times are now bad, every man is complaining The wholesale merchants cannot get in his debts from the shop keeper , the shopkeeper cannot get his debts from the citizen, the currier complains of the shoemaker ; the shoemaker of his customers, the draper accuses the tailor, the tailor shows list longer than his measure, of money due him, the landlord complains of his tenant, and the tenant of the times. In every class of society, more or less distress is felt This is not the distres of war, it is the distress of peace, of treble extended importations, and the false credit of innumerable banks now curtailing !!

All these evils are to be remmedied by a little attention to their causes, and following the course which common sense dictates ; Import less and manufacture more, let all citizens join to effect this. Build fewer houses in the city and cultivate more acres in the country, this will reduce the markets. Let commerce be guided by natural demands, and let not merchants expediate vessels like so many Quixots of adventures. A careful examination into the state of affairs, & our relative state with the world would be the means of saving us from much mischief. Let not this be considered as hypothetical : time will prove it too true to those who neglect it : it is drawn from nature, and natural causes will produce effects in spite of all the enthusiasts of the world.

N. Y. Nat. Advocate.

The smoke for a week past has been so exceedingly thick as to render the navigation of the coast exceedingly difficult On the eastern coast, as far as Frenchman's Bay, in particular, it has been very thick, and during the late gale, cinders were blown aboard vessels at a considerable distance from the shore. It has also been very offensive to the eyes of persons travelling at sea. A coaster lay for most of Saturday night, at about a mile's distance from the Boston light house, without being able to discern the light. The smoke yesterday was not quite so thick.—Boston D. A.

New-York, Oct. 10.

The ship Madelana, Capt. Welden, belonging to Messrs. Hall and Robbins of this city, arrived at Philadelphia yesterday morning, in 33 days from Teneriffe. On the 27th of August, four days before the Madelana sailed, the British Packet Brazil, arrived off the port in 11 days from Gibraltar, bound home ; and her commander, who came on shore, stated, that the Dey of Algiers had been put to death, and his son proclaimed successor ; and that, on assuming the reins of government, the son immediately annulled the treaty which his father had made with Commodore Decatur.

The commander of the Packet also stated, that the American and British squadrons were to unite in the attack upon Algiers ; and confirmed the account of the capture of the British Packet Watcheren by an Algerine cruiser. What reliance is to be placed in the reports of the English commander, we know not. He must have left Gibraltar two or three days later than the latest advices before received.

At Teneriffe, American produce was very dull. Flour $8, wines, P. T. $150.

On the 25th of August, the ship Jane Ferguson, of and from Philadelphia, touched at Teneriffe, and, finding no prospect of a market, proceeded on the 28th for Lisbon.

On the 3d inst. the Madalena spoke, off the Capes of the Chesapeake, the sch. Sally-Ann, 20 days from N. Carolina, bound to New-York, and supplied her with water and provisions. She had been driven from the coast, and her crew for the last three days had subsisted upon parched peas.

Off the Capes of the Delaware, spoke the ship Prosperity and brig David Moffit, both from Marseilles bound to Philadelphia, the former out 60, and the latter 70 days.

Schooner Bolina wrecked.—The schr. Bolina, capt. Lee, from this port for Charleston, S. S. with a very valuable cargo, was wrecked on Thursday evening, the 26th of September, on Boddy's Island, about 50 miles to the northward of Cape Hatteras, and six from Roanoke Inlet. She struck on the shoal about 11 o'clock at night, the wind blowing a tremendous gale from N. E. and lay in this situation for upwards of an hour, the sea making a fair breach over her. At length the crew succeeded in cutting away her mainmast, when she beat over the shoal, and drove up high and dry on the beach, so that all the crew jumped ashore. The schr. had about four feet of water in her hold. The cargo is all saved, but about one third of it is damaged. Boddy Island is about 15 miles long, is a barren sand bank, and has but one solitary building on it. The Bolina sailed from this port on the 22d of September.

From Fayetville, (N. C.) Oct. 1.

The following is a statement of the Produce shipped from this place to Wilmington, between the 1st of May, 1815, and 1st of May. 1816

2307 hhds. Tobacco,
8892 bales Cotton'
12962 bbls. Flour,
5160 casks Flax Seed, of 7 bush. each,
11813 bush. Wheat,
10341 do. Corn,
29076 gallons Domestic Spirits.

Received from Wilmington, within the same periods, 145,545 bushels of Salt.

The accounts from the country justify a belief that the Crop of Tobacco will exceed and the crop of Cotton equal the quantity of last year. None of the former and but a few bales of the latter have yet been brought in : the quality of the Cotton is fair, but the staple shorter than usual. As there have been no sales of either of these articles, we cannot at present annex the price. Small quantities of Wheat and Flax-seed are coming to market, the former is selling at 1 dollar 50 cents per bushel, the latter commands 1 dollar.

SULLY FOR SALE.

THIS estate, situated in the county of Fairfax, twenty-two miles from Alexandria and the same distance from Georgetown, contains about seven hundred and fifty acres. Little River Turnpike passes through it half a mile from the dwelling house. The situatiou is handsome, and remarkably healthy; the water is good and abundant. The soil, which was originally excellent, has for some years past had the advantage of improving husbandry, Plaister of Paris acting with powerful and immediate effect on all grasses and grains. The fields present a good surface for cultivation; and these, now untilled, are covered with red clover. The orchards are very large and thrifty; the collection of table fruit is choice and various. The mansion is spacious and well constructed; the outhouses are all conveniently situated; those for farming purposes are expensive, and excellent in their kind.

For a gentleman of leisure this would be a delightful residence; and a profitable estate to an active farmer. The title is indisputable, and perfectly unincumbered.

A number of well taught orderly young men, with good stocks and farming utenails of all kinds, and the crops of the present year if desired, will be at the command of the purchaser.

Application may be made to the subscriber, living on the premises, next the post office at Pleasant Valley, in Fairfax.
